GIFT-BOOK, NEW.—Songs and Tunes for Education, edited by John Curwen. The Harmonies by James Turle, Esq., Organist of Westminster Abbey. The Pianoforte edition in handsome cloth binding, with gilt title, price 2s. 6d.
This work is the fruit of the Editor's residence in Germany. He collected books of music for young people in every town he visited. With the aid of Mr. James S. Stallybrass, the whole of this collection was analysed, and the choicest translated or adapted for English use. The Editor, however, never preferred a German piece when an English one would do as well. He aims to educate the feelings and sympathies of childhood by the habit of singing good songs. This he considers the proper office of music in schools. He takes care that the three school ages (childhood, boy-and-girl-hood, and youth) are suited with songs on the following subjects:—Country Scenes, the Seasons, Fancy and Humour, Kindness to Animals, Home Sympathies, Patriotism, Industry, Integrity, Religion, &c. There are two hundred and sixty-seven songs. This work will doubtless supersede the Editor's widely-known "School Music" and "School Songs."
An edition in the Tonic Sol-fa Notation, containing the Treble Voice "parts" only, price, in paper, One Shilling; in cloth, One Shilling and Fourpence. The "Education Songs," containing the words only, price Sixpence.
Ward and Co., 27, Paternoster-row.

WOULD YOU GAIN A MAIDEN'S HEART.—Madrigal. By Robert Sloman, Mus. Bac., Oxon. Dedicated by permission to Mr. H. Leslie's Choir.—Addison, Hollier and Lucas, Regent-street. Price 2s.
"To write a good madrigal is no easy task. In addition to genius and feeling, it demands a large amount of musical scholarship; and so perfect are the models of this class of composition—the Italian and English madrigals of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, the Augustan age of pure vocal harmony—that the production of a madrigal like those of Marenzio or Wilbye, has been said to be as arduous as an attempt to rival a statue of Praxiteles or Phidias..... Mr. Sloman's music has a relish of the olden time. The separate parts are exceedingly melodious, and the effect produced by their combination is full and rich, while there is not a speck upon the transparent clearness of the harmony. Altogether this is a charming madrigal, and does honour to its author."—The Press.
